

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

METHUEN – CEO and President Joseph D. Alaimo is excited to announce that Eagle Investigations Services, Inc. DBA EIS, Inc. has successfully received two national business certifications. These certification processes were a multi-month, detailed verification processes which involved deep dives into the details of our business practices, financial stability, and military service to the United States Government. As a result, EIS, Inc. is now certified as a Service-Connected Disabled-Veteran Owned Business.

In a letter from the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, Center for Verification and Evaluation. The Director John Perkins of the Center for Verification and Evaluation, wrote “I am writing to inform you that Eagle Investigations Services, Inc. has been verified as a Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB).”

“It has been my life mission to serve both our country in the U.S. Navy and my local community as a Police Officer. I would not trade my 30 plus years of service for anything,” said CEO Alaimo.

In a notification from The President and CEO of Disability:IN Jill Houghton, issued EIS, Inc. the Disability:IN Service-Disabled Veteran Disability-Owned Business Enterprise certification (SDV-DOBE).

CEO Alaimo further said he is proud of his service and even more proud of the success his family business has achieved over the years. “The top quality of customer service, security services, private investigations and training that we provide to our clients is second to none. EIS, Inc. has been providing professional investigations to state and municipal government, corporations, legal professions, insurance companies and the public; along with providing first rate Security Officers and Public Safety Officers for Businesses, Governments and Colleges and Schools since 1997.

Attached is some history on Joe Alamo’s service and career.

Joseph D. Alaimo is a former Deputy Chief of Police in a major city police department. He is highly decorated and accomplished management professional in the areas of Homeland Security, Law Enforcement, Criminal Law Investigation and Response to School Emergencies. Attended and completed the Homeland Security “Active Shooter Preparedness Workshop”. Areas of expertise include in-depth knowledge and skilled in law enforcement with a strong understanding of law, regulations, ordinances, and operating policies and procedures. More than 30 years of law enforcement with a proven ability to create and direct security and investigative programs.

Joseph graduated Springfield College Magna Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Human Services. Joseph also graduated from Police Management Training at Babson College and Leadership Development Training Lowell, MA. He maintains memberships in The International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP). The Massachusetts Police Association, Founding member of the Concerns of Police Survivors Association and the American Association of Notaries.

Joseph is a US Navy veteran that served aboard the USS San Bernardino LST 1189.

Joseph was awarded The Police officer of the year, Methuen Exchange Club (1992) – Presented for actions taken to save a police officer shot in the line of duty on Christmas Day, 1991 by aiding in the capturing of the individual while performing CPR on the officer that was shot. The Medal of Valor, Italian International Police Officers Association, The American Red Cross Lifesaving Award, The John J. Megina High Performance Award, The Award for service Above and Beyond the call of duty, Sons of Italy, The Methuen City Council Certificate of Achievement Award and The Massachusetts House and Senate Awards & Citations for Bravery.